Yankees Win Opener!

Yankees Win Opener

The champion, Appomattox Yankees of the Pony League, opened defense of the title they won last year by defeating N.L. Ruritan at the old Brookville High School field Friday night, by a record of 11 to 2.

Pony League Veteran Sam Waddell went the distance on the mound for the Yankees allowing no hits, 2 runs, walking six and striking out 18 batters. It was a very courageous performance, said Yankee Coach Stanley Thomas.

The Yanks scored 2 runs in the first, 2 in the 4th, 1 in the 6th and 6 in the 7th for their total of 11. Mark Eggleston and Warren Coleman led the attack at bat, Mark getting 3 hits (that cost his dad 3 new shirts) including a triple. Warren had two hits including a triple. Other hits were by Waddell, Curtis Mayberry, including a triple, Bascomb Almond, Tommy Wheeler and Mark Scott. There are 7 teams in the Timbrook league, one from Rustburg and 4 from the Brookville area.

All home games will start at 6 p.m. until the lights are repaired and adjusted at which time the games will begin at 7:30.

Yankees Defeated

After winning their opener the Yankees were defeated Monday by Service Esso 11 to 8. Eggleston, Mayberry and Smith all pitched for the Yanks allowing 7 hits. Blanks was the winning pitcher although he gave up 12 hits, including 3 each by Sam Waddell and Phil Rice. Bascomb Almond had 2 hits. Blanks led Esso with two hits.

Appo Rips Nelson With 27-2 Win

Appomattox County High School girls closed out their 1970 softball season with a powerful 27-2 win over the Nelson County girls in a district game played at Appomattox last Thursday. The Appomattox team finished the season undefeated with a 10-0 mark. They have not lost a district game in the last five years and out of the last 46 games played they have lost only two games.

Appomattox did not waste any time getting started as they batted around in the first inning and scored seven runs. They came up with four in the second, three in the third, four in the fourth, six in the fifth and three more in the sixth. They pounded out 30 hits with Sharon Johnson, Kay Thomas and Wanda Hillsman led Appomattox with four hits each. Lucy Martin, Kathy Martin and Becky Harris each had three hits and Leonda Hudson, Glenda Paulette and Zandra Crain each had two hits. Kathy Martin had a home run for Appomattox and scored four runs along with Kay Thomas. Thomas won her ninth game without a lost. Sharon Johnson and Becky Harris each scored five runs.

Nelson scored their only two runs in the fifth inning as the results of a two run homer by M. Irving. She was the only girl for Nelson to get more than one hit.
